

DETAILS

WHO: Native American, Alaskan Native, and Pacific Islander High School Students (in small groups of 3-5)

Accepted students will travel with one adult mentor from their community to and from the event.

WHAT: Native Youth Community Adaptation and Leadership Congress

WHEN:
July 1-7, 2018 *

WHERE:
National Conservation Training Center (NCTC),
Shepherdstown, West Virginia
<https://nctc.fws.gov/campus/>

COST: None

All student travel to the Congress, lodging, and food costs at NCTC will be paid for by the Bureau of Indian Affairs and other federal agency partners.

Actual date of departure will depend on specific travel arrangements.*

Click for access to the Frequently Asked Question and Answer Sheet.

Native Youth Community Adaptation and Leadership Congress

Apply today!

July 1-7, 2018

National Conservation Training Center,
Shepherdstown
West Virginia

Click here for the online application

Student groups comprising of a minimum of 3 to a maximum of 5 will be accepted. Students need to fill out application individually. Mentors are also required to submit a form using this application.

Application Deadline: April 6, 2018

For further questions please contact

NYCALC@nmwildlife.org

Check out our NYCALC 2017 video here!

Join students from across the country to discuss community adaptation and related environmental issues impacting Native peoples. The mission of the Native Youth Community Adaptation and Leadership Congress is to develop future conservation leaders with the skills, knowledge, and tools to address environmental change and conservation challenges to better serve their schools and home communities.

